November 16th, 2025

Saint Anne Prayer

Good Saint Anne, obtain for me an increase of faith in the great mystery of the Holy Eucharist. Help me to see in this great Sacrament Christ our High Priest, making real for me the saving grace of His death on the cross; feeding my soul with His Flesh and Blood so that I may live in Him and He in me; producing the unity of the people of God and gathering His Church together. By your powerful intercession with God, help me to center my life around the altar that I may inherit the promise of the Lord: "He who eats my flesh and drinks my blood, has life everlasting." Amen.

The 33rd Sunday in Ordinary Time Year C reminds people that God sees all things and will bring justice. The readings speak about the rewards of faithfulness, the value of hard work, and the need to endure trials. They encourage people to trust in God's plan, stay strong in faith, and live responsibly. Each passage offers wisdom on how to navigate life with patience, effort, and hope.

God's Justice

The readings for the 33rd Sunday in Ordinary Time Year C remind us of God's justice. Malachi tells us about a fierce day when the arrogant and wicked will be punished. This shows that God sees everything and will bring justice.

Those who honor God will see the sun of righteousness rise with healing. This means that living a good life will bring blessings. God rewards those who stay faithful. This reading encourages us to live justly and honor God. It reminds us that our actions have consequences. We should always strive to do good.

The Value of Hard Work

In 2 Thessalonians, Paul talks about the importance of working hard. He says that they worked hard to be an example. Paul teaches that everyone should work and not be idle. Idleness leads to trouble and meddling. Paul advises against being lazy. Instead, we should be productive and contribute to our community.

This reading for the 33rd Sunday in Ordinary Time Year C highlights the dignity of work. It shows that hard work is pleasing to God. We should avoid idleness and always strive to be useful.

Endurance and Salvation

Endurance is a key theme in these readings. Jesus tells us that those who endure will be saved. This means that staying faithful is very important.

When we face trials, we should remember Jesus' promise. He will give us the strength and wisdom we need. Our faith will help us endure anything.
